

Kepler College, Rwanda

Equity Group Foundation, Kenya

Tanzania Institute of Bankers

WorldQuant University Partners

WorldQuant University collaborates with 28 government, industry, and social sector organizations in 11 countries. Together we are developing a diverse group of learners by making quant and technical skills accessible worldwide.

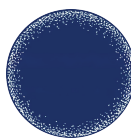

African Institute for Mathematical Sciences (AIMS), based in Rwanda, advances STEM education. Signed May 14, 2025.

African Olympiad Academy, based in Rwanda, expands access to STEM education. Signed on Oct. 28, 2025.

Agahozo-Shalom Youth Village, based in Rwanda, empowers orphaned and vulnerable youth through holistic education. Signed Oct. 10, 2025.

AIvolve Leadership Dynamics, based in Switzerland, helps prepare leaders for the digital economy. Signed Nov. 21, 2025.

Data Engineering Pilipinas, based in the Philippines, helps democratize data engineering education. Signed Dec. 16, 2025.

E&M Technology House, based in Kenya, specializes in business solutions. Signed March 23, 2026.

Equity Group Foundation, based in Kenya, is transforming lives across Africa through high-impact socioeconomic and environmental programs. Signed Sept. 25, 2025.

Global Nexus Institute, based in Rwanda, delivers tech education, data science, AI, and career training. Signed April 7, 2026.

Goodwall, based in Switzerland, equips young talent with future-ready skills through a social education app. Signed Dec. 26, 2025.

Higher Institute of Business, Engineering and Sciences is a private higher education institution in Cameroon. Signed March 4, 2026.

Justina Mutale Foundation, based in Zambia, empowers women and youth. Signed Sept. 18, 2025.

Kaduna State Government in Nigeria seeks to increase access to education. Signed Sept. 23, 2025.

Kepler College in Rwanda will collaborate to expand academic offerings. Signed Feb. 18, 2026.

National Bank of Rwanda ensures price stability and sound financial system. Signed March 9, 2026.

Nigeria SEC will partner with WQU to develop financial market skills. Signed May 6, 2025.

Pezsha, based in Kenya, connects small businesses to working capital. MOU signed Dec. 21, 2025.

Renewed Hope Global is a Nigerian presidency-endorsed platform. Signed Jan. 23, 2026.

Royal Iwere Foundation, based in Nigeria, serves the Warri Kingdom. Signed March 31, 2026.

Rwanda Bankers' Association serves as an advocate for the banking sector. Signed Jan. 14, 2026.

Rwanda Ministry of Education expands access to education. Signed Sept. 8, 2025.

Sazience Technologies gives select WQU learners paid experiences with clients. Signed Sept. 30, 2025.

Semicolon, based in Nigeria, trains and supports young Africans in tech careers. Signed Feb. 17, 2026.

Shun-Unemployment Foundation fights Nigerian unemployment. Signed March 4, 2026.

Tanzania Institute of Bankers (TIOB) is a professional association that advances the banking and financial industry. Signed June 26, 2025.

Transat Management, operating in Cote D'Ivoire, provides investment services. Signed April 7, 2026.

United Negro College Fund (UNCF), based in the United States, funds scholarships at historically black colleges and universities. Signed Feb. 6, 2026.

Visiola Foundation, based in Kenya, educates, and mentors girls and young women. Signed Sept. 15, 2025.

Zindi, based in South Africa, connects talent with real-world projects. Signed March 31, 2026.

Whether you're building high-performing teams, investing in workforce development, or shaping the next generation of global leaders, WorldQuant University is your strategic partner. We can provide your organization with job-ready talent and scalable educational solutions to upskill and develop your workforce.

Gbemi Disu, WQU Senior Vice President,
Global Partnership Development

